

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA
COLLEGE OF HUMANITIES

Center for East Asian Studies

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA
COLLEGE OF HUMANITIES

East Asian Studies

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA
COLLEGE OF HUMANITIES

Religious Studies
& Classics

MEET AND GREET WITH GRADUATE STUDENTS

With Dr. Matthew King

Join us for the meet and greet with Dr. Matthew King! Take the chance to have an in-depth discussion with Dr. King on his lecture “In the Forest of the Blind: The Eurasian Journey of Faxian’s Record of Buddhist Kingdoms.” Join this discussion also to learn about research ideas and teaching experiences in religious studies and Buddhist studies.

Matthew W. King is Associate Professor in Transnational Buddhism in the Department of Religious Studies at the University of California, Riverside. He also currently serves as Director of Asian Studies. He is interested in the social history of knowledge along the Tibet-Mongol interface during the late-and post-imperial periods.

Coffee and dessert will be provided. All EAS graduate students are welcome to attend.

March 31, Friday 4 PM – 5 PM

Learning Services Building Room 107

INFO: ceas.arizona.edu